Foreword

Hello. I'm Takeuchi Sachiko. I'm a woman. And my lover's name is Masako. She's a girl, too. Yes, I'm a lesbian.

This book is a continuation of my obscure lesbian manga Honey & Honey. A lot of people might find it hard to believe that we really are in a relationship together, since we're both women, but this manga is a true story about my love life. There's nothing particularly special about it... it's just a normal relationship.

People enter this world in a lot of different ways, for a lot of different reasons. In my case, I was just trying to be true to my own feelings, and it sort of just happened naturally. (laugh)

This second book is a little dirty. (laugh) I wrote about some understanding friends, some friends of other sexualities, some happy moments in our lives (of course!), and some sad times too.

When we fall in love, we experience joy, sadness, and anxiety, just like anyone else.

But we are still two women. ☆ And since we're both women, we have some unique feelings and experiences. There are a lot of special events we go to, like parades and things in Shinjuku Nichoume. Would you like to take a peek at a world you wouldn't normally get to learn much about?

This is a deep theme, but not a heavy one. Please, consider how much we have in common with you. I think there are a lot of different views out there, but I hope everyone, bians and others alike, enjoys reading this.

Please enjoy Sachiko and Masako's romance, with all its ups and downs and excitement. ☆

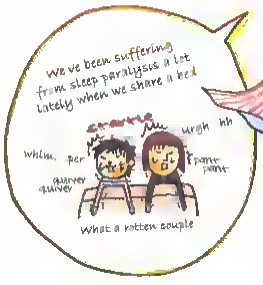
Characters

Character Intro

Masako

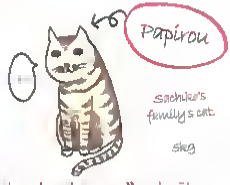
B1 Sachiko's girlfriend. Two years younger than Sachiko. Boyish. Naive and honest, but has no problem saying some pretty awful things Sachiko finds that irresistible



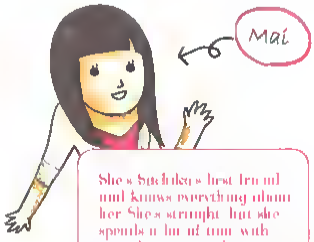
Sachiko

Lesbian (femme). She's always getting pushed around by Masako, but she's living strong. Very jealous and sentimental

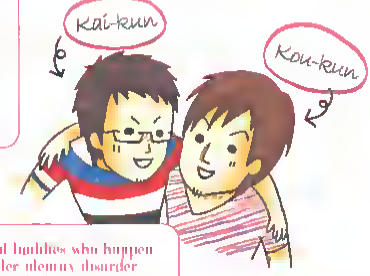
Honey Honey Deluxe



Sachiko's family's cat. Weighs 5kg. Sometimes disturbs Sachiko while she's working, but is also a kind cat who cares for Sachiko's family.



She's Sachiko's best friend and knows everything about her. She's strange, but she spends a lot of time with sexual innuendos because her best friend is a loser. A strong person who's overflowing with curiosity and isn't the least bit shy.



Sachiko's friends. A pair of buddies who happen to be FtMs (they have gender identity disorder, they're biologically female and identify as men). They're both active people, so they're always turning up and saying "Let's go have some fun!" They're constantly doing funny things, so you can't help but laugh when you're with them.

I-M. The first friend Sachiko made in Shinjuku. Nickname: His body must have really taken to the hormone supplements or something, because it changed into a male body in no time flat. He's actually half Japanese. His real name is "Emily."

You made us look very too pretty!
Especially you!!
No not at all.

*NOTE FROM CHEMISTRY'S "PIECES OF A DREAM." TRANSLATION BY MEGCHAN.

There are a lot of funny moments, too
I WANT SOME NEW SHOES
I want to look at some, too
Whoa!

WHY?

How about you buy me one?
Buy me one!
HEY, I WANT A NEW BRA

Lian Mysteries

Where does the word "lesbian" come from?

In the Aegean Sea lies an island called Lesbos. A seventh century B.C. poet who lived there is said to have been a homosexual. The word "Lesbian" was used to denote women from the island, and it mutated into "lesbian" -- that's one explanation, anyway. Today, the shortened form "lez," has derogatory connotations, so many use the word "lian" instead.
